I have come to realise how important it is for the good priest to go and sit in the victims home and say I am sorry for what has been done to you and your family and just sit there with vulnerability and compassion. In such a team, some players called "spotters" will sit at a table and play the game at the table minimum, while keeping a count basically doing the back "counting". During the time frame of this book Maggie, Hannah and most of their extended family are on a beach vacation so all the unofficial sleuthing is done by Claire and Kay.
